Elegy For The Departure:

Elegy For The Departure Zbigniew Herbert, 1999-08-06 Available for the first time in English Elegy for the Departure and Other Poems is an important collection from the late Zbigniew Herbert Translated from the Polish by award winning translators John and Bogdana Carpenter these sixty eight verse and prose poems span forty years of Herbert's incredible life and work The pieces are organized chronologically from 1950 to 1990 with an emphasis on the writer's early and late poems Here Zbigniew Herbert's poetry turns from the public what we have come to expect from this poet to the more personal The title poem Elegy for the Departure of Pen Ink and Lamp is a three part farewell ode to the inanimate objects and memories of childhood Herbert reflects on the relationship between the living and the dead in What Our Dead Do the state of his homeland in Country and the power of language in We fall asleep on words Herbert's short prose poems read like aphorisms deceptively whimsical but always wise Bears are divided into brown and white also paws head and trunk They have nice snouts and small eyes Children who love Winnie the Pooh would give them anything but a hunter walks in the forest and aims with his rifle between that pair of small eyes Elegy for the Departure and Other Poems confirms Zbigniew Herbert's place as one of the world's greatest and most influential poets

Ovid's Revisions Francesca K. A. Martelli, 2013-12-05 A striking feature of Ovid's literary career derives from the processes of revision to which he subjects the works and collections that make up his oeuvre From the epigram prefacing the Amores to the editorial notices built into the book frames of the Epistulae Ex Ponto Ovid repeatedly invites us to consider the transformative horizons that these editorial interventions open up for his individual works and which also affect the shape of his career and authorial identity Francesca K A Martelli plots the vicissitudes of Ovid's distinctive career long habit considering how it transforms the relationship between text oeuvre and authorial voice and how it relates to the revisory practices at work in the wider cultural and political matrix of Ovid's day This fascinating study will be of great interest to students and scholars of classical literature and to any literary critic interested in revision as a mode of authorial self fashioning

Washington Solomon Howe, 1800 Odes and Elegies, Descriptive & Sentimental John Corry, 1797 Odes and elegies, with the patriot, a poem John Corry, 1797 Departures Xavier Pons, 2002 A collection of essays by various Australian and European authors on a wide range of Australian cultural topics this is a story of struggle and achievement and occasional failure Departures deals with innovation and transgression in Australian literature and history and brings out the vitality of Australian culture as it meets new challenges The Poetry of Loss Judith Harris, 2023-05-15 The Poetry of Loss Romantic and Contemporary Elegies presents a renewed look at elegy as a long standing tradition in the literature of loss exploring recent shifts in the continuum of these memorial poems This volume investigates the tensions arising in elegiac formulations of grief through detailed analyses of seminal poets including Wordsworth Keats and Plath using psychoanalytic precepts to reconceptualize consolation through poetic strategies of inner representation and what it might mean for personal and collective experiences of loss Tracing the development of elegy beyond extant readings this volume addresses contemporary constructs of mourning and their attendant polemics within the wider culture as extensions of elegiac longings and the tendency to refuse consolation and cede to the endlessness of grief Furthermore this book concludes that contemporary elegies break with conventions of poetic structure and expression rather than the poets seeking resolution to grief through compensation they often find themselves dwelling within the loss rather than externalizing and transcending it The Poetry of Loss Romantic and Contemporary Elegies examines these developing psychoanalytic concepts pertaining to a poetics of loss providing readers with a new appreciation of mourning culture and contemporary attitudes towards grief

Discrepant Solace David James, 2019 Consolation has always played an uncomfortable part in the literary history of loss But in recent decades its affective meanings and ethical implications have been recast by narratives that appear at first sight to foil solace altogether Illuminating this striking archive Discrepant Solace considers writers who engage with consolation not as an aesthetic salve but as an enduring problematic one that unravels at the centre of emotionally challenging works of late twentieth and twenty first century fiction and life writing The book understands solace as a generative yet conflicted aspect of style where microelements of diction rhythm and syntax capture consolation's alternating desirability and contestation With a wide angle lens on the contemporary scene David James examines writers who are rarely considered in conversation including Sonali Deraniyagala Colson Whitehead Cormac McCarthy W G Sebald Doris Lessing Joan Didion J M Coetzee Marilynne Robinson Julian Barnes Helen Macdonald Ian McEwan Colm Toibin Kazuo Ishiguro Denise Riley and David Grossman These figures overturn critical suppositions about consolation's kinship with ideological complaisance superficial mitigation or dubious distraction producing unsettling perceptions of solace that shape the formal and political contours of their writing Through intimate readings of novels and memoirs that explore seemingly indescribable experiences of grief trauma remorse and dread James demonstrates how they turn consolation into a condition of expressional possibility without ever promising us relief He also supplies vital traction to current conversations about the stakes of thinking with contemporary writing to scrutinize affirmative structures of feeling revealing unexpected common ground between the operations of literary consolation and the urgencies of cultural critique Discrepant Solace makes the close reading of emotion crucial to understanding the work literature does in our precarious present The Poems of Bishop Henry King Henry King,1925 ...An Elegy On the Departure of General George Washington Solomon Howe,1800 The Cooing of the Dove and the Cawing of the Crow: Late 'Abbāsīd Poetics in Abū al-'Alā' al-Ma'arrī's Saq̣ al-Zand and Luzūm Mā Lā Yalzam Stetkevych Suzanne P.,2022-10-24 In The Cooing of the Dove and the Cawing of the Crow Suzanne Pinckney Stetkevych offers original translations close readings and new interpretations of selected poems from the two contrasting diwans of the blind Late Abbāsīd master poet Ab al Al al Ma arr d 449 H 1057 C E The first is Saq al Zand Sparks of the Flint the highly esteemed collection of qa dah poetry of his youth which he later disavowed The second is Luz m M L Yalzam Requiring What Is Not Required the programmatic double rhymed collection from his later period of withdrawal and seclusion She argues that the contrasting poetics of engagement and poetics of disengagement of the two diwans reflect the transition from High Classical to Post Classical aesthetics Muhammad Iqbal Javed Majeed,2020-11-29 Bringing together Islamic studies a postcolonial literary perspective and a focus on the interaction between aesthetics and politics this book analyses Iqbal s Islamism through his poetry It argues that his notion of an Islamist selfhood was expressed in his verse through the interplay between poetic tradition and creative innovation It also considers how Iqbal expressed an Islamist geopolitical imagination in his work and examines his exploration of the relationship between the modern West and a reconstructed Islam For the first time Iqbal s personal letters have been drawn upon to provide an insight into his inner conflicts as articulated in his poetry Concentrating on the complexity of his work in its own right the book eschews the standard appropriation of Iqbal into any one political agenda be it Indian nationalism Muslim separatism or Iranian Islamic republicanism With its analytical and in depth reading of Iqbal s verse and prose this book opens a fresh perspective on Islam and postcolonialism It will be a fascinating study for general readers and readers with interests in the intellectual and political history of modern South Asia colonialism and postcolonialism Islamic studies and modern South Asian literature especially Urdu and Persian poetry A Commentary on Ovid, Remedia Amoris Victoria Rimell,2024-05-08 The Ovidian Renaissance seems to have left the Remedia Amoris behind The poem has remained marginal read either as a reversal of the Ars Amatoria s teaching that brings the world of Ovidian elegy to a banal end or as an over determined supplement to the Ars which ironically fails in its ostensible aim of curing the dissatisfied lover While recent work has explored how the poem functions not just as a palinode to but also as a continuation of the Ars the critical status quo continues to present it as a minor appendage rather than as an important chapter in Ovid s project as a poet of desire Victoria Rimell s commentary resets critical perspectives by reading the Remedia as distinctive and original and as a pivotal text within Ovid s oeuvre as a whole In her immersive creatively interpretative guide to the poem the Remedia emerges as an intricate work that interacts with medical texts works on rhetoric law magic and ritual philosophical thinking about self discipline the irrational consolation and therapy for the soul as well as with Greco Roman satire lyric epigram and traditions of didactic and erotodidactic verse The poem Rimell argues is a key node in Ovid's development of a poetics of paradox reversibility and auto immunity Memories of the Classical Underworld in Irish and Caribbean Literature Madeleine Scherer, 2021-09-20 Classical Memories is an intervention into the field of adaptation studies taking the example of classical reception to show that adaptation is a process that can be driven by and produce intertextual memories I see classical memories as a memory driven type of adaptation that draws on and reproduces schematic and otherwise de contextualised conceptions of antiquity and its cultural exports in broadly speaking the twentieth and twenty first centuries These memory driven adaptations differ often in significant ways from more traditional adaptations that seek to either continue or deconstruct a long running tradition that can be traced back to antiquity as well as its canonical points of reception in later ages When investigating such a popular and widespread set of narratives characters and images like those that remain of Graeco Roman antiquity terms like adaptation and reception could and should be nuanced further to allow us to understand the complex interactions between modern works and classical antiquity in more detail particularly when it pertains to postcolonial or post digital classical reception In Classical Memories I propose that understanding certain types of adaptations as intertextual memories allows us to do just that Reading Vasari Anne B. Barriault, 2005-12-10 Giorgio Vasari chronicled the story of Renaissance art in Italy as it unfolded during the 14th century This book looks at recent disputes over what is fact or fiction or who may have read Vasari's editions when they were first published It covers all aspects of Vasari's criticism from architecture and art to biography and travelogue
