Elements Of Fiction An Anthology:

Elements of Fiction Robert E. Scholes, Rosemary Sullivan, 1982 Elements of Fiction Robert Scholes, Rosemary Sullivan, 1994 This new edition of the very successful Canadian version of Elements of Fiction showcases 80 stories including 2 novellas as indicative of the variety of ways short fiction has manifested itself from the mid 19th century to the present. More writers from a wider variety of countries and cultural contexts including India, Africa, Australia, and Latin America have been added and 22 contemporary writers are new to this edition. Providing students of literature with a lively balanced introductory text, the book addresses the question of What is fiction with a concise essay that defines the nature of fiction and principles upon which it is based. Carefully analysed stories by Maupassant and Joyce demonstrate how students can use these principles to develop a thoughtful critical approach and gain a sense of appreciation of the short story form. Introducing each author with a biography and arranging the stories chronologically according to the author's date of birth, Scholes and Sullivan give students the widest possible exposure to fiction of the modern and post modern era.

Elements of Fiction Robert Scholes, Rosemary Sullivan, 1988 Elements of Fiction Teacher's Manual Robert E. Scholes, 1988-05-01 The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy, 2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives. The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations: small towns, a famous metropolis, city sidewalks, a rural wooded area, apartment buildings, a pond, a general store, a prison, and more. In the process, these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations. Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers, author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories. The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century. Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin, Toni Cade Bambara, Charles Chesnutt, Ralph Ellison, Zora Neale Hurston, and Richard Wright. Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset, The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction.

Elements of Fiction Robert E. Scholes, Rosemary Sullivan, 1986 This abridgement contains forty three short stories and like the original includes concise essays that define the nature of fiction and the principles upon which it is based. Beginning with Hawthorne, Poe, and Flaubert, the collection continues through the present day with Malamud, Gallant, Updike, and Munro.

The Cumulative Book Index, 1908 A world list of books in the English language Reader's Guide to the Short Story James H. Pickering, 2006-01-18 The Reader's Guide to the Short Story comes free with the eleventh edition of Fiction 100. It is
