Elements Of Writing About Literature And Film:

The Elements of Writing about Literature and Film Elizabeth McMahan, Robert Funk, Susan Day, 1988 Part of the Elements of Composition Series      Writing in Film Studies, from Professional Practice to Practical Pedagogy Bryan Mead, 2024-01-09 A common refrain heard from instructors in offices across the world is that students have a hard time producing quality written discourse This is no different in the world of film studies where many undergraduate students struggle to cogently discuss the films they watch in class How can film instructors help students become better writers This book answers this question by first uncovering the disciplinary expectations we have for students and then offering strategies to explicitly teach those expectations in the classroom This book examines and identifies the disciplinary conventions of professional film studies discourse along with the expectations we have for student writing in undergraduate film courses What becomes clear from this analysis is that the pedagogical expectations we have for students are aligned with and shaped by professional writing in the discipline It helps to uncover the argument types instructors take for granted and helps those teaching undergraduate students not only to know what those expectations are but also how to use that knowledge to foster better student writing      (English) LITERATURE IN FILMS & MEDIA STUDIES (Paper-2) Prof. (Dr.) Sangeeta Arora, Dr. Udit Rajput, 2024-06-01 Purchase e Book of English Paper 2 LITERATURE IN FILMS MEDIA STUDIES English Edition of B A 6th Semester for all UP State Universities Common Minimum Syllabus as per NEP Published By Thakur Publication      The Film Novelist Dennis J. Packard, 2011-09-08 The Film Novelist is the first primer on writing film novels whether you are a beginning novelist a seasoned writer wanting to cross over into script novel writing or a creative writing teacher looking for proven ways to launch new writers So what is the difference between a screenplay and a film novel Screenplays indicate solely what the audience is to see or hear on screen Film novels are short and take about as long to read as a feature film takes to watch The description dialogue and narration of a film novel can simply be lifted out and used as the description dialogue and voice over narration for a script The author has devised a fifteen week program starting from a one sentence pitch to the novel itself which includes filming a scene from your script novel He grounds the discussion of early film novels like The Maltese Falcon Of Mice and Men and The Misfits to provide historical and theoretical background while detailing the practical sequential approach for completing a short novel and script      Muslim Masculinities in Literature and Film Peter Cherry, 2021-09-23 A climate of Islamophobia allows anxieties about Muslim men living in and migrating to Britain to endure British Muslims men are often profiled in highly negative terms or regarded with suspicion owing to their perceived religious and cultural heritage But novels and films by British migrant and diaspora writers and filmmakers powerfully contest these stereotypes and explore the rich diversity of Muslim masculinities in Britain This book is the first critical study to engage with British Muslim masculinities in this literary and cinematic output from the perspective of masculinity studies Through close analysis of work by Monica Ali Nadeem Aslam Guy Gunaratne Sally El Hosaini Hanif

Kureishi Suhayl Saadi Kamila Shamsie Zadie Smith Zia Haider Rahman and Salman Rushdie Peter Cherry examines how migrant and diaspora protagonists negotiate their masculinity in a climate of Islamophobic and anti migrant rhetoric Cherry proposes a transcultural reading of these novels and films that exposes how conceptions of Britishness Muslimness and those of masculinity are unstable and contingent constructs shaped by migration interaction with other cultures and global and local politics

Literature into Film Linda Costanzo Cahir, 2014-12-24 For most people film adaptation of literature can be summed up in one sentence The movie wasn't as good as the book This volume undertakes to show the reader that not only is this evaluation not always true but sometimes it is intrinsically unfair Movies based on literary works while often billed as adaptations are more correctly termed translations A director and his actors translate the story from the written page into a visual presentation Depending on the form of the original text and the chosen method of translation certain inherent difficulties and pitfalls are associated with this change of medium So often our reception of a book based movie has more to do with our expectations and reading of the literature than with the job that the movie production did or did not do Avoiding these biases and fairly evaluating any particular literary based film takes an awareness of certain factors Written with a formalistic rather than historical approach this work presents a comprehensive guide to literature based films establishing a contextual and theoretical basis to help the reader understand the relationships between such movies and the original texts as well as the reader's own individual responses to these productions To this end it focuses on recognizing and appreciating the inherent difficulties encountered when basing a film on a literary work be it a novel novella play or short story Individual chapters deal with the specific issues and difficulties raised by each of these genres providing an overview backed up by case studies of specific film translations Films and literary works receiving this treatment include The Unbearable Lightness of Being The Manchurian Candidate 1962 Lady Windemere's Fan by Oscar Wilde and Shakespeare's Henry V Interspersed throughout the text are suggestions for activities the film student or buff can use to enhance his or her appreciation and understanding of the films Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here
